

Aloha!

The board has been quiet this summer as everyone travels to visit family or chases children through the summer daze of free time and infinite possibility for summer activities. We will be meeting at the end of August to draft our prospectus for the Annual Member Show in October at Hoomaluhia. It will be the 58th annual show this year - ready your beautiful work and stay tuned for details!

Call for Entry

There are a few very exciting shows coming up as fall begins. Please visit our call for entry page in the website if you are looking for interesting events. We don't list them all, but we have some of the local shows.

The Japanese Chamber of Commerce is holding the annual Excellence Show with intake in August

The Hawaii Watercolor Society Open Show 2017 will have intake in September
WAG 58th Annual Member Show will have intake in October

More details are on the website. <http://windwardartistsguild.org/call-for-entry/>

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Jimmy Tablante on his acceptance into the San Diego Watercolor 37th Annual International Exhibition! I found out via the HWS newsletter and thought y'all would like to hear too!

Save the Date

Save the date for the Christmas Party - Sunday evening, Dec. 3. Kaneohe Yacht Club.

That's all for now, but look for another newsletter at the end of August with the prospectus for the upcoming Members Show. Until then, happy creating!
