MARK BROWN DEMO

Attendees at Mark Brown's free April 13 art demo at Ho'omaluhia Gardens had a great time and learned much from this gifted artist.

Mark's generosity went far beyond sharing his skills and knowledge. After the demo, he asked everyone to enter their names for a drawing to pick the lucky person who would go home with the lovely painting he had just created! Dennis Miyatake was that lucky (and very happy) winner (see photo above.)

TEACHER ART GRANTS

Each year WAG dedicates a portion of its membership fees for grants and scholarships that support and promote artistic development of students in the Windward District.

This year, WAG will award up to three $250 grants to teachers in Windward elementary to intermediate schools. Teachers must submit an application by May 30 to be considered for one of these grants.

Selected student art from the funded grant projects will be displayed at the October 2013 WAG Members Show at Ho'omaluhia.

For information or an application form, contact Sherree McKellar at sherreemckellar@hawaii.rr.com.

Letter from the President

Our 54th Annual Open Exhibition is up at 1132 Bishop Street and every time I have been there, people have been browsing through the art. We have price lists and contact information available for anyone who is interested. This show was not without its challenges, but the group of volunteers who came on Saturday, then again the following Wednesday to make sure the art was displayed made it all come together. What would we do without our volunteers? This show runs until Saturday, April 27, when artists selected to participate in the show must come to claim their art from between 10 to 11 a.m.

Our Annual Meeting and lunch is this Saturday, April 20. We need volunteers to help this event run smoothly. We also continue to search for people to fill three elected Board positions: 2nd Vice President (Membership) and both Corresponding and Recording Secretaries. In addition, we are looking for a new Education Chair and a Hospitality Chair, both appointed by the President. This involves a Board meeting once a month (currently on the first Sunday of the month at 4 p.m.) and a willingness to help with our various activities and shows. We work hard but we have lots of fun! If these positions go unfilled, a lot of the momentum we have gained during this past year will evaporate. Please don't let that happen.

Make my day and call me to tell me you will serve! If you can't attend all of the meetings, that's okay. Unless you are the Recording Secretary, you can miss a meeting as long as you email your report before the meeting.

My profound thanks to those who are retiring from their Board positions this year: Larak ("Raki") Briscoe – Vice President; Beverly Royden – Recording Secretary; Elizabeth York – Corresponding Secretary; Marti Wiese Rounds – Hospitality Chair; and Sherree McKellar – Education Chair. They have served faithfully and cheerfully and have contributed much to our organization.

Aloha,

Kathy Bowers
