

Aloha WAG,

WORKSHOP

William Zwick's 4-part Workshop for WAG members is still available. Class dates are 4 consecutive Mondays: February 22, 29, March 7, and 14, 2016. The pricing is a tremendous discount for WAG members. This is a great opportunity to learn about figure drawing, oil painting, and ultimately how to paint people in plein aire. If you are interested, please make sure to mail your check payable to Windward Artist's Guild in the amount of $200 ASAP – the deadline is February 15. The mailing address is: Windward Artist's Guild, (ADDRESS REMOVED)

CAROL MOORE FINISHES HER TERM AS WAG PRESIDENT

With Carol Moore's term as President at an end, I would like to thank her very much for her help at the helm of WAG. Without her leadership, our PLACE show and the latest Christmas Party would not have happened. Thank you Carol!

WAG BOARD KOKUA PLEASE

On a related note, please volunteer for WAG's board if you have willingness to serve and a few hours each month to devote to a worthy cause – If you cannot chair one of the responsibilities, we can have you co-chair or just help with specific tasks that you enjoy. Many hands make light work. It doesn't have to be a lot of work, and you don't have to have a specific talent. We can find a role for you that fits your lifestyle. It is a wonderful service that truly helps the art community of Oahu be more cohesive and reach out into the community. It will help you meet many of the people in the art community, and you don't have to pay membership fees while you are serving on the board. Together we can help focus more attention on the arts in the community, support the school arts programs, create connections that help launch art careers, nurture the next generation of professional artists, put together excellent shows, and increase the number of people who care about visual art. Please reply to this newsletter or email windwardartistsguild \(at\) gmail.com to let us know you would like to volunteer.

GRANT FOR TOTAL LIFE RECOVERY

WAG has renewed its annual support of Cynthia Schubert Richmond's volunteer teaching. She teaches the women in the correctional facility's Total Life Recovery program to channel emotions in the healthy medium of artistic expression. All supplies for this endeavor come from her own pocket, so WAG has been making this grant available to help her continue the excellent work for our community.

FACEBOOK & ARTWEEK SUPPLY UP TO DATE ART NEWS

I urge you to visit our Windward Artist Guild Facebook page for all the latest announcements. There are workshops, meet & greets, shows, and more announced on the WAG Facebook page! We have so many talented members in shows and winning top awards, that I cannot even list it all in this newsletter.

Also, check out the revamped page of the Artweek by Star Advertiser. It's a wonderful, huge, dazzling listing of art events throughout the islands, and the most comprehensive listing of art events for Hawaii that I've seen.

Thank you!
