

Windward Artists Guild presents...

COLOR Workshop

for PAINTERS

by Carl Jennings

Saturday, June 22, 2019

10:00 am to 2:00 pm

Ho'omaluhia Botanical Garden, 45-680 Luluku Rd., Kaneohe

Join Carl, an accomplished artist and art educator, in this lecture and experiential event for watercolor, oil, and acrylic painters. A professor of art at Kapi'olani Community College and adjunct faculty member at Australia's University of Newcastle, Carl will cover:

- What is color? (A look at the science behind color)
- What's right with contemporary color theory? (How misconceptions about traditional color theory get in the way of understanding and using color, and how contemporary color theory addresses them)
- How does one mix colors? (Look at key concepts for successful color mixing)
- How does one control color? (Learn to use color tonally to create the desired effect)

Fee: $45 for current WAG members and students*, $50 for all others. See registration form for details. You need not be a Windward resident to participate or to join WAG!

Supplies: Bring your own (see supplies sheet); no materials will be available at the workshop.

*Students grade 9 and above, student ID required.

**Workshop limited to 12 participants. We reserve right to cancel if insufficient enrollment; fees will be refunded in full.
