

WAG NEWS

Windward Artists Guild Newsletter

Editor: Liz Corbin

Happy New Year

2022 Artists Holiday Party

It's time to renew your WAG Membership for 2023.
Details are online at:
http://windwardartistsguild.org/joinrenew.

Amazing Fall Art Season on Oahu

WAG members were everywhere!

September

Pastel Artists of Hawaii 19th Annual Members' Show at Ho'omaluhia Botanical Garden Art Gallery, September 2 - 29 featured WAG members Therese Babineau, Toni Martin, Barbara Tinius and Roger Tinius.

The REWIND ~ FAST FORWARD show celebrated The ARTS at Marks Garage's 21st anniversary. It featured photos of past shows and lots of new works by artists who have been part of Marks through the years. WAG members in the show included Aileen Feldman, David Friedman, Frank Oliva, and Frances Wong.

October

Windward Artists Guild 62nd Annual Member Show at Ho'omaluhia Botanical Garden Art Gallery, October 2 - 29. The eclectic show featured 43 artists in a variety of 2-D and 3-D media. For the first time we had sitters for the show, logging over 1000 visitors and 15 sales.

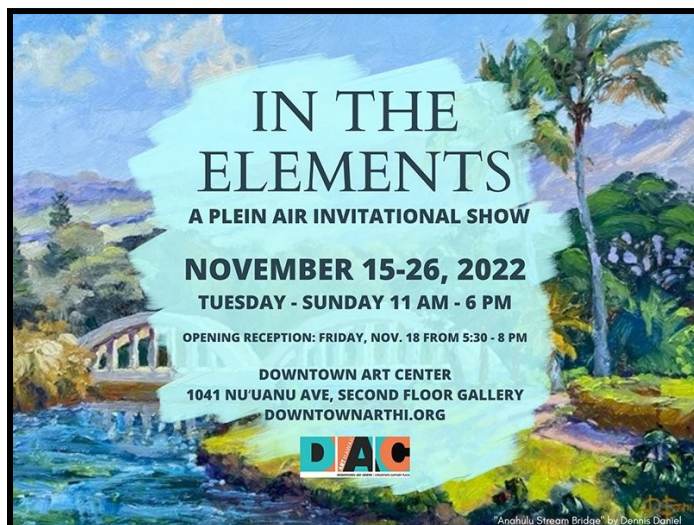

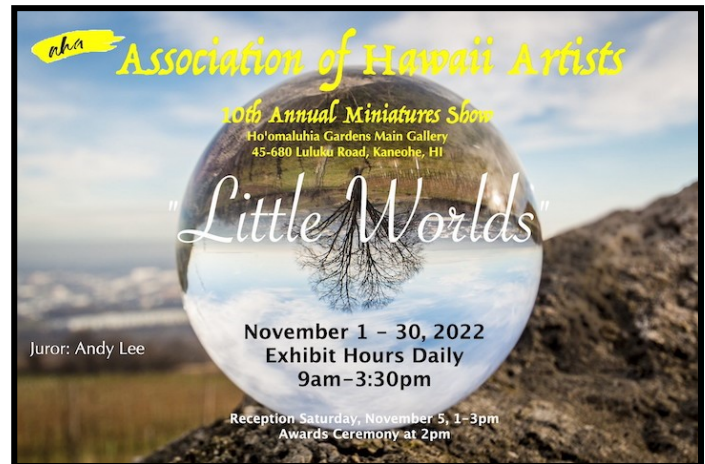

WAG members Carol D'Angelo, Dexter Doi, Barbara and Roger Tinius, and Frances Wong showed their art and gift items at The HEART of Honolulu, a Family-Friendly Art Festival along Nuuanu Avenue on October 8.

November

The Association of Hawaii Artists' Miniatures Show "Little Worlds" was held at the Ho'omaluhia Art Gallery from November 1 - 30. Participating WAG members included Ed Brennan, Liz Corbin, Carol D'Angelo, Dexter Doi, Kelley Fitzgerald, David Friedman (3rd Place), Donald K. Johnson (Honorable Mention), Sherree McKellar, MaryAnne Long, Frank Oliva, Betsy Poulos (Honorable Mention), Linh Tang (2nd Place), Lovelyn Voorhees, and Frances Wong.

The Downtown Art Center presented In the Elements, a plein air invitational show, from November 15 - 26. WAG members in the show included Dwayne Adams, Lynne Boyer, Ed Brennan, Mark T. Howard, Anne Irons, Alla Parsons, and Frances Wong.

The 2022 Lanikai Craft Fair, held in Kailua on November 19, included art gift items by Carol D'Angelo, Dexter Doi and Eileen Towata.

November

The miniature artwork of WAG members Lynne Boyer, Ed Brennan, David Friedman, MaryAnne Long, Santa Moreno, Wendy Roberts, and Linh Tang can be seen through January 7th at the Matchbox Plus XVIII show (Nov. 18 - Jan. 7) at Cedar Street Galleries.

December

For the second year, The ARTS at Marks Garage hosted three art groups for a Holiday Market during the month of December. The Windward Artists Guild, the Association of Hawaii Artists, and the Hawaii Watercolor Society all included art and gifts produced by WAG members.

Photos from the WAG Holiday Fair

December

Hui Ho`omaluhia Artists held their Annual Art Show December 3 - 31. WAG members in the show included Dwayne Adams, Dagmar Kau, Young Schlack, Jimmy Tablante, and Barbara Tinius.

What's on the Horizon

Call to Artists: The ARTS at Marks Garage is accepting entries for Repaint - Repurpose - Reconstruct which will be on display from January 12 - February 25, 2023. Entry deadline is January 5th - details are available at: <https://artsatmarks.com/call-to-artists>.

The Women Artists show runs January 9 - March 11 at Pauahi Tower Lobby, Bishop Square, 1003 Bishop St. The opening reception is on January 19th from 4:30 - 6:30 pm. The art of WAG members Carol D'Angelo, Tamara Moan, Betsy Poulos, Wendy Roberts, and Eileen Towata will be on display.

WAG's Spring Show will be at Pauahi Tower in March, with room for plenty of 2-D and 3-D art, large and small. Watch for details coming soon.

Member News

MaryAnne Long is now president of The ARTS at Marks Garage, replacing Kim Taylor Reece at the end of his three-year term. ARTS at Marks has a 21-year history of being an innovative and inclusive gallery, performance space, and incubator for emerging artists. And many seasoned artists hang there too.

Wendy Roberts was interviewed by Kerrie Moore, a writer for Uppercase Magazine, to talk about the process of using dreams as an inspiration for art. Wendy shared her advice to “sketch an un-aided (no reference photos) version of what you saw in your dream as soon as you can upon waking...”

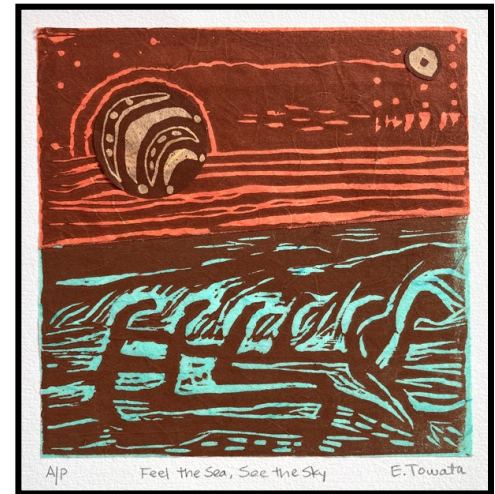

To read more about Wendy's process and other artists, the article can be found starting on page 44 at: <https://uppcasemagazine.com/products/uppcase-55-single-copy>.

Member News

In February, Eileen Towata will be in the 2023 Print Exchange of the Re-marque/New Grounds Print Workshop and Gallery in Albuquerque, NM. Participating printmakers provide an edition of 11 prints, one of which is sold to benefit art education. The remaining prints are distributed to the other participants.

Eileen's 2022 entry.

Kimberly Keys participated in several events related to the book Sisters Across Oceans for which she designed the cover.

"SEH The Power of Sisterhood" Sister Power broadcast (Think Tech Hawaii).

"Seasons Poetry Festival Celebration and Book Signing" Pacific Raven Press.

Workshops

Association of Hawai'i Artists presents "Painting the Portrait from Life" with Alexandria W. Eyer, Sat., 9 am - noon, Feb. 11, in Kailua (<https://associationhawaiiartists.com/exhibits/>).

Maui Arts League presents a workshop with Mian Situ, master figurative painter, March 27 - 30 (<https://MauiArtsLeague.org/Events>).